

The Ontario Public Service

Are you interested in becoming a Policy Professional?

You are invited to the
OPS Policy Career Day

Want to learn what a policy professional actually does? Come and find out what a policy career in the Ontario Public Service (OPS) is like and what career opportunities are available at this free full-day event. You will learn more about different career paths and the different avenues available for seeking employment opportunities within the OPS. Hear case studies of current policy portfolios directly from policy experts, network with other students and discover how you can jump start your career in the Ontario Public Service.

November 13, 2007
(Downtown) Toronto, Ontario
9:00 am - 4:00 pm

R S V P

by Friday, November 2, 2007
ynpsevents@ontario.ca

Questions? Emma Lind 416-212-8860

Space is limited. Register early.

www.ontario.ca/careers

