

Disabled people don't seek merely to participate in Canadian culture — we want to create it, shape it, stretch it beyond its tidy edges.

Catherine Frazee

The Royal Ontario Museum is pleased to present a ground-breaking exhibition:

Out from Under

Disability, History and Things to Remember

APRIL 17 TO JULY 13, 2008

Royal Ontario Museum | 100 Queen's Park

Enter via the Bloor Street West Entrance of the Michael Lee-Chin Crystal

Organized by the School of Disability Studies at Ryerson University and the Royal Ontario Museum, Out from Under: Disability, History and Things to Remember chronicles the struggles, alliances and setbacks faced by disabled people in Canadian history and illuminates the proud history of resistance and survival.

Curatorial Team: Kathryn Church, Catherine Frazee, Melanie Panitch

Generously supported by:

Royal Ontario
Museum Governors

COVER IMAGE: CUIRASS, FOR PERSONS WITH RESPIRATORY PARALYSIS.

This exhibition was produced by students, collaborators, and faculty at Ryerson University's School of Disability Studies.

School of Disability Studies