

Participants Wanted!!

Are you a young woman (19-29) concerned about Cyber Shaming?

Have you experienced cyber shaming in the last two years?

If you are interested to participate in a study that explores the impacts of Cyber Shaming,

We are interested in hearing your voices.

We are trying to find out:

- How young women define cyber shaming;
- What are some of the coping mechanism that young women use if/when subject of cyber shaming;
- Who do they refer to if they find themselves exposed and shamed on cyber?
- What can be done in order to prevent cyber shaming?

Your participation:

- Does not require that you disclose your identity or personal information.
- Would involve attending an art making session.
- The art making session will take about 45 – 60 minutes.
- You would receive $50 gift card for your time.
- Your participation is voluntary and you can withdraw from the study at any time.

If you have any questions, or are interested in sharing your stories or concerns, please contact: Principal Investigator: Soheila Pashang, Email: cybershaming@gmail.com

This research project is a partnership project between Seneca College, Ryerson University, York University and University Settlement. It is funded by Women's College Hospital, Women's Xchange.