

UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA
College of Public Health

PURSUE UNDERSTANDING. TAKE ACTION.

INNOVATE RESEARCH DISCUSSION SERIES

UNDERSTANDING THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN DIVERSIFYING THE HEALTHCARE WORKFORCE AND ACHIEVING HEALTH EQUITY

FEATURED SPEAKER: MONICA R. MCLEMORE PHD, MPH, RN

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR, FAMILY HEALTH CARE NURSING DEPARTMENT UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, SAN FRANCISCO

MAY 17, 2022 AT 12 PM EDT

ONLINE VIA ZOOM

At the University of California, San Francisco, Monica McLemore holds the Thelma Shobe Endowed Chair and is an associate professor in the Family Health Care Nursing Department, as well as an affiliated scientist with Advancing New Standards in Reproductive Health (ANSIRH). She retired from active clinical practice after a 28-year clinical nursing career in 2019; however, continues to provide flu and COVID-19 vaccines. Her program of research is focused on understanding reproductive health and justice.

REGISTER <https://tinyurl.com/uga22mclmore>

? QUESTIONS? Email zchen1@uga.edu.

HOSTED BY THE CPH HEALTH DISPARITIES RESEARCH WORKING GROUP, DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH POLICY & MANAGEMENT, & INTERDISCIPLINARY APPROACHES TO SOCIAL DETERMINANTS OF HEALTH TEAM